Wednesday night – ICA dine around options

ICA 2012 has partnered with local restaurants to offer you fantastic dining experiences around Brisbane! This is a unique opportunity exclusive to ICA delegates.

How does it work?

1. Visit the National Archives of Australia booth in the exhibition area to discuss your dining options and for assistance with table reservations.
2. Alternatively contact the restaurant directly to make your table reservation. Please do not forget to mention that you are part of the ICA Congress 2012.
3. Show your ICA Congress delegate pass on the night to receive your exclusive discount.

Book early to avoid any disappointment. All bookings are subject to availability.

1. Ahmet's Turkish Restaurant
– starting from $25 – 35 per person

While South Bank is a world away from the bustling marketplaces of Istanbul or the cliffs of Pamukkale, Ahmet's ensures that Little Stanley street fosters a slice of traditional Turkish culture, complete with authentic interiors and lively belly dancing. Hungry diners can opt for the 'prince' or 'king' sized feasts, and sample mixed grill platters, oven-roasted vegetables and tasty felafel balls.
